

Thoughts and Smiles – Oct. 18, 2021

Kurt Vonnegut tells his wife he's going out to buy an envelope:

"Oh, she says, well, you're not a poor man. You know, why don't you go online and buy a hundred envelopes and put them in the closet?

And so I pretend not to hear her. And go out to get an envelope because I'm going to have a hell of a good time in the process of buying one envelope.

I meet a lot of people. And see some great looking babies. And a fire engine goes by. And I give them the thumbs up. And I'll ask a woman what kind of dog that is. And, and I don't know. The moral of the story is - we're here on Earth to fart around.

And, of course, the computers will do us out of that. And what the computer people don't realize, or they don't care, is we're dancing animals. You know, we love to move around. And it's like we're not supposed to dance at all anymore."

Let's all get up and move around a bit right now... or at least dance.

Mosquito trap

The mosquito lands on the salt, thinking it's sugar. They get thirsty for water, but the cap has rum in it. The mosquito gets drunk, trips on the stick and bangs its head on the rock.

The neighbor kid asked me today "Where is Walla Walla?" I told him somewhere between ting tang and bing bang!

Ireland Calling

An old man was very ill and nearing his final hours. He noticed the aroma of apple pies coming from the kitchen.

With his last bit of energy, the old man pulled himself slowly out from his bed, across the floor to the stairs, and down the stairs to the kitchen.

His wife was just taking the apple pies from the oven.

With his last bit of energy, he reached for a pie.

His wife tapped the back of his hand, and said, "Leave them alone, they're for the funeral!"
