The appearance of things changes according to emotions; thus, we see magic and beauty in them, while the magic and beauty are really in ourselves.

At birth, we board the train and meet our parents, believing they will always travel by our side.

As time goes by, other people will board the train, and they will be significant, i.e. our siblings, friends, children, and even the love of your life.

However, at some station, our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone.

Others will step down over time and leave a permanent vacuum.

Some, however, will go so unnoticed that we don't realize they've vacated their seats.

The train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes and farewells.

Success consists of having a good relationship with all passengers requiring that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone is that we do not know at which station we will step down.

So we must live in the best way, love, forgive and offer the best of who we are.

It is essential to do this because when we step down and leave our seats empty, we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life.

I wish you all a joyful journey ...

And now, a little silliness....(aka, Groaners)

My teacher told me not to worry about spelling because in the future there will be autocorrect And for that I am eternally grapefruit.

I am still angry at my classmates
for voting me
"Most Likely to Hold a Grudge".

*Have a terrific week!
Blessings to you all!*
